

Johnny Maddox

RED HOT RAGTIME VOLUME 1 & 2

File under: Jazz/Ragtime

This is a two CD set of Johnny's solo piano sessions: Red Hot Ragtime Volume 1 and Red Hot Ragtime Volume 2. This first CD includes Johnny's number 1 selling hit song, "The Crazy Otto Medley" as well as "The Entertainer". The second contains many of Johnny's other hits from the 50s.

Johnny Maddox was already America's number one jukebox artist when in 1954 he recorded the first all-piano record in history, "The Crazy Otto Medley". It spent 14 weeks at the top of the charts, and became the first ragtime record to sell over 1,000,000 copies, eventually selling over 2,000,000. An accomplished ragtime piano player and musicologist, Johnny even has his own star on Hollywood Boulevard, right next to Will Rogers.

Johnny Maddox was born on August 4, 1927 in Gallatin, Tennessee. Johnny's love of ragtime and early American music has led him to amass a collection of over 30,000 78rpm records, wax cylinders and piano rolls. His sheet music collection is conservatively estimated at 200,000 pieces, 3,000 of which he knows by heart.

Key Selling Points:
